

APPENDIX 2 Detailed Analysis of Local Green Spaces

Site Name	Public Access	Other Designation	Demonstrably special to the community regarding					Comments	Suitable for next stage of assessment
			Beauty	History	Recreation	Tranquillity	Wildlife
Myees Plantation	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	Yes	This is the only significant open area within the Neighbourhood Area. It is used by residents for leisure activities such as dog walking. It screens off the M40 from the school and residential areas.	Yes
Grassland with trees on south side of junction of Marlow Hill and Daws Hill Lane	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	No	No	This land provides a safe area between two busy roads and is in close proximity to 3 schools. It is adjacent to a road used for parking by parents and is a pick-up point for school children. This area is also used for recreational purposes by residents.	Yes
Area of land off The Spinney	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	No	This area of land has been used for community activities since 1991. It has bollards installed to prevent use by travellers. Activities include community events, games, and young children's activities.	Yes
Area of land on Fair Ridge adjacent to Foxleigh	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	No	This area of land has been used for community activities since 1991. It has recently had bollards installed. It is used for the annual summer barbecue attended by residents and local councillors.	Yes
Grassland on north side of junction of Marlow Hill and Daws Hill Lane	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	No	No	This land provides a safe area between two busy roads and is in close proximity to 3 schools. It is adjacent to a road used for parking by parents and is a pick-up point for school children. There is a park bench beneath trees.	Yes
Area of land bordered by Fair Ridge, Marlow Hill and access road	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	No	This green has been used by the local community since 1991, and more recently by residents of John North Way. It also provides a pathway to Marlow Hill and is used for various games..	Yes